

Guidelines for Conduct and Professional Responsibilities

Content Area I: Professional Development

Competency

- A. Demonstrates knowledge and competence in specific content area, quality standards, and best practices in field related to specific discipline
- B. Advocates, supports, and works towards implementation of industry standards of quality
- C. Demonstrates personal leadership in the field through ongoing education, and field building
- D. Demonstrates knowledge of codes and licensing regulations

Content Area II: Professional Relationships

Competency

- A. Articulates and follows a code of ethics for making personal and professional decisions
- B. Maintains confidentiality in all areas, especially when discussing issues and solving problems
- C. Demonstrates ethical and professional behavior that includes trustworthiness and individual integrity
- D. Addresses needs of client without personal bias of values, beliefs, prejudices and past experiences
- E. Uses reflective practices to re-examine actions and feelings expressed by client