

Join our Advisory Committee

Achieve is committed to excellence! We are looking for practitioners, trainers, coaches, advocates and leaders who are interested in championing our efforts to provide optimal services to our members. Selected candidates will have experience supporting and representing diverse groups within the field. Interested candidates should send a narrative detailing their professional experiences in the field with this completed application to support@mncpd.org by March 15, 2018. Please include how your participation will help Achieve meet the needs of historically underserved communities. Selected candidates will receive an official invitation to join the committee no later than March 30th.
